Enclosure

Date: April 24, 1987
File No: SA 87 RF 0003

The Attorney General of California has prepared the following title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure:

FAMILIES. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. Provides that families are to be free from arbitrary or negligent intrusion by government and that parents have the right to raise their children according to their own beliefs. Parental rights are equal and inalienable. Parents have the inalienable right to joint and equal legal and physical custody of their biological children. Parental rights cannot be terminated except by informed and voluntary waiver. Parental permission must be sought for medical service provided to a minor except in an emergency. No husband or wife, parent or child may be compelled to testify against one another. Summary of estimate by Legislative Analyst and Director of Finance of fiscal impact on state and local governments: Because of the ambiguities of this initiative and the uncertainty regarding the interpretation of its provisions, the net fiscal impact of this initiative cannot be determined.

AN INITIATIVE PETITION FOR AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA CONCERNING FAMILY INTEGRITY, RIGHTS, SANCTITY, AND TOGETHERNESS.

3-16-37

The Sovereign People of the State of California observe and declare, that whereas the family is the primary source and location of civilization, it is the duty of legitimate civil government to respect and defend the life, liberty, happiness, independence, wisdom, and privacy of the family.

Whereas the Sovereign People of the United States of America have retained unto themselves many rights and privileges, likewise families also specifically retain familial rights and privileges.

Wherefore, the Sovereign People of the State of California declare and reassert the following:

(1) All families have the right to be free from the arbitrary or negligent intrusion of government or government agencies into family life. All laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

(2) The right to nurture, educate, and care for their children according to the beliefs, values and conscience of the parents is an inalienable right and liberty of the family.

(3) With regard to their biological minor children, the rights of the parents are equal and inalienable. These rights derive from biology and nature and precede, transcend and endure the establishment of civil society and government.

(4) The parents shall be presumed to represent the best interests of their biological minor children in every legal proceeding unless proven to the contrary beyond a reasonable doubt.

(5) Every law to the contrary notwithstanding, all parents have the inalienable right to joint and equal legal and physical custody of their biological minor children.

(6) Except for emergencies, the permission of the parents must be sought for every medical service provided to a minor child.

(7) The rights of parents to the care, custody, companionship, and control of their biological minor children cannot be terminated except by the informed and voluntary waiver of this right by the parents.

(8) No husband or wife, parent or child may ever be compelled to give testimony or be a witness against one another.

(9) The enumeration herein of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage other rights retained by parents and families.

SECRETARY OF STATE EU ANNOUNCES NEW INITIATIVE ENTERS CIRCULATION

SACRAMENTO — Secretary of State March Fong Eu announced today (Apr. 24) that she has given the proponent of an initiative regarding families the green light to begin gathering signatures.

Stephen D. Konnoff of Sacramento (no telephone number available) is leading the effort to place "Families", an initiative constitutional amendment, before the voters. The measure provides that families have the right to be free from "arbitrary or negligent intrusion of government" into their lives; that parental rights are equal and inalienable, including the right of parents to raise their children according to their own beliefs and to joint and equal legal and physical custody. These rights could not be terminated except by "informed and voluntary waiver" by the parents. The measure further provides that, except in an emergency, parental permission must be sought for medical service provided to a minor. No husband, wife, parent or child could be compelled to testify against one another.

As a constitutional amendment, "Families" must be signed by 595,485 registered voters in order to be placed on the June 1988 primary election ballot. All signatures must be submitted to county elections officials by Sept. 21, the 150-day deadline.

A copy of the initiative, its circulation calendar and title and summary is attached.
